

UNIQUELY KAIKŌURA IN OUR NATURE

TRADE MANUAL 2022-2023

Uniquely Kaikōura

Ko te rangi te korowai o te maunga me te whenua, ko te awa te hononga o te rangi ki te tai, ko te taiao te mauri o Te ahi Kaikōura a Tama ki te Rangi.

Translation: The sky is the cloak that covers the mountains and land, the rivers connect the sky to the ocean, the environment is the life force of Te ahi Kaikōura a Tama ki te Rangi.

Meaning: This tauparapara represents the sky, land and sea which are the key components that makes up our natural environment that sustains the health, development and spirit of all people.

We invite you to discover what makes Kaikōura so unique - a place that's one of its kind;

UNLIKE ANYWHERE ELSE

Kaikōura is centrally located within New Zealand at the top of the South Island on the East Coast and is easily accessed, by land or by air.

Kaikōura is a 2hour 30minute drive from Christchurch through the beautiful Waipara wine valley, then along the stunning coastal corridor.

From Picton 2 hours and Blenheim 1.5 hours along the State Highway 1 coastal road.

Along the 60km beautiful stretch of the Kaikōura coastline is Cultural Artwork Trail that invite community & visitors alike to take a break, enjoy the beautiful views and reflect on our rich local history.

There is an airstrip 5km south of the Kaikōura township for scenic flights and charters. The nearest international airport is in Christchurch. With the nearest regional airport being in Blenheim.

InterCity Buses has a Christchurch to Kaikōura to Picton & vice versa bus service that runs daily.

Travelling between Christchurch and Picton, the Coastal Pacific isn't just a scenic activity, combined with the Interislander Ferry it is the perfect way to connect between Wellington, Blenheim, Kaikōura and Christchurch.

The train service is currently on hold looking to run again in late September 2022.

MUST DO'S WHEN IN KAIKŌURA

Meet the locals- Kaikōura is home to a range of wildlife year round including the Giant Sperm Whale, Dusky Dolphins, NZ fur seal, albatross & other pelagic sea birds

Sleep in a treehouse or in a glass cabin! Stay at one of our unique accommodation offerings.

Swim with pods of the acrobatic and social Dusky Dolphin or head out and visit our giant Sperm Whales

Mt Fyffe is one of the best day hikes on the South Island, with incredible mountain views in one direction and coastal views in the other.

Indulge in Kaikōura's name sake - Crayfish. The name Kaikōura translates to mean "to eat crayfish"

Discover beauty around every corner as you explore the back roads of Kaikōura

Visit the new Cultural Artwork safe stopping sites and learn about some of our Maori culture & history in Kaikōura

Enjoy time on the water, catching fresh fish for lunch. Breathtaking views are also a bonus while doing so.

Soar above and with scenic flights either by helicopter or plane over the Kaikōura ranges

Take a scenic drive along the coastal corridor, taking time to explore the stop off areas along the way.

WELCOME BACK FROM OUR OPERATORS

Encounter Kaikōura

Excited plus! We can't wait to welcome visitors back to Kaikōura to share the beauty of our coastline and the magic of the marine life once again with everyone.

The dolphins are jumping for joy and the albatross are soaring with majestic grace - all we need now is for our "long awaited" visitors to complete this beautiful picture!

Lynette Buurman - Owner

South Pacific Helicopters

Hearing the announcement of the borders reopening was incredibly surreal. We are polished and ready to welcome back all our international visitors. There are a few new products for them to experience for example a Marine Biologist, Rural Tourism, Gin on the mountain with 'Meet the Distillery' and of course our local resident whales have been patiently waiting. Haere mai welcome back we can't wait to see you in Kaikōura.

Krissy Griggs - Marketing Manager

Whale Watch Kaikōura

Nau Mai Haere Mai, Nga Manuhiri O Nga Hau E Wha, Kei Te Mihi Mahana Ki a Koutou, Mai I Nga Tangata O Tenei Wahi.

To our very special visitors from all four points of the compass we warmly welcome your return to our ancestral home Kaikōura. May our mountains embrace you, may our rivers and seas captivate you as they have our people for generations.

On behalf of Whale Watch Kaikōura we bid you our manuhiri a warm welcome, we are excited and privileged to host you once again our visitors from around the world. Join us in Kaikōura, we look forward to seeing you here and together we will take a great journey of discovery, from mountain peaks that surround our coastal community, then into the depths of the Kaikōura Canyon the realm and home of Tohora the great whales.

Kei Te Mihi Atu, Kia Koutou Katoa. Greeting to you all.

Thomas Kahu - Sales & Innovation

Bendamere House B & B

Kerry & Julie at Bendamere House Bed & Breakfast are excited to welcome back our international visitors. To go with this enthusiasm for the welcoming of our guests we are doing some renovation of rooms to make our product that much better. We look forward to interacting once again with our guests from all parts of the world and sharing our stories and knowledge of our amazing town to all.
